STATE FOREST RANGER RETIRES AT WEST PARIS

A retirement party for Maine Forestry Department District Forest Ranger Wilbur A. Libby of West Paris was held at the Country Way Restaurant in South Paris on June 30. The affair was attended by over 70 of Mr. Libby's friends and fellow workers from throughout Maine, including Deputy Forest Commissioner Fred E. Holt of Augusta and Organized Town Division Ranger A. Temple Bowen, Jr.

Mr. Libby began his state service as a forest watchman in 1939. In 1942 he became a county warden and in 1948 was promoted to District Forest Ranger in West Paris.

Active in the Northeastern Forest Fire Compact, he has regularly attended meetings held in Concord, N. H. He was a member of the Compact since 1940. Mr. Libby is also a member of the Evening Star Lodge 147 and the Union

Deputy Forest Commissioner Fred E. Holt (left), Maine Forestry Department, Augusta; Wilbur Libby, and Mrs. Libby.

PATRONS OF BETHEL P. O. REMINDED OF HOUR CHANGE

Patrons of the Bethel Post Office are reminded that effective July 12, the lobby will be closed at 5:30 p. m., Monday through Fridays; and at 1 p. m. on Saturdays. Window service hours will remain the same as at present.

Grange 180. He has been a past master of both groups.

Also in attendance at the party were his wife, Mrs. Nellie Libby, and daughter, Mrs. Geneva Kime, who teaches in Panama. He also has another daughter, Mrs. Joyce Ellis.

A certificate of appreciation was presented to Mr. Libby and also a purse of money. The Libbys will continue to live in the West Paris area.

COMMENTS FROM THE OFFICE OF THE TOWN MANAGER

The highway department, except for one man, will be on vacation the week of July 19.

Mrs. Young, town clerk is also taking her vacation starting July 12.

After vacations the rebuilding of the Rabbit Road Bridge will commence. We will widen the bridge and improve the approach from Route 26. The present abutments will be faced and lengthened with concrete. Steel stringers will be used and if funds permit a concrete floor covered with asphalt will be applied.

Much more time is being devoted to patrolling the town for dogs. Although any extra effort made, does improve the situation, complete control is impossible due to the fact dogs do not stay in one place very long. Call to the office or to the Police Officer help, as this gives us an idea of the location of the worst offenders.

Preliminary surveying has been completed for the location of the Sewage Disposal Plant and lines to connect it to the present outflows. The process of acquiring the necessary land and easements has started when the locations are certain.

Elynn N. Dickey

Mrs. Harriet Forbes, Rumford, is a guest of Mrs. Sylvia Conroy.

Miss Cynthia Chapin was one of 97 University of Maine, Orono, students named to the Dean's List with a 4.0 (A's) rank for the spring semester.

MORE MAINE TOWNS TAKE STEPS TOWARD LOCAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS

Eight more Maine towns have taken the first step towards a locally organized economic development program as participants in the Maine Community Betterment program, the Department of Economic Development has announced.

Dexter, Dover-Foxcroft, Kittery, Livermore Falls, Madison, Oakland, Pittsfield and Searsport, all members of the Department sponsored MCB program, have each received 100 printed copies of their community profiles prepared by the local MCB committees and printed by DED.

The profile, a four page summary of concise, accurate and up-to-date facts pertaining to the community, will serve as the basic tool for potential industrial, commercial or recreational development.

To date, nearly one half of the 63 towns and cities enrolled in MCB have completed this phase of the statewide community development program.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY PLANS BETHEL'S FIRST HOMECOMING DURING WEEK END OF OCT. 3

One hundred and seventy-five years ago on Aug. 15, Bethel held its first town meeting, having been incorporated as a town June 10, 1796. With this anniversary in mind the Bethel Historical Society is sponsoring Bethel's First Home Coming the week end of Oct. 2, and asking that all organizations and individuals participate in making this event a real success.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mason Carter, held a meeting with the committee at the Sudbury Inn on June 30, and the program is planned to run for a day and a half starting with registration at 11 a. m. on Oct. 2.

Each committee member has been assigned some part of the program to work on with a local organization, as it is felt this is something in which the whole community will wish to be involved.

It is hoped with publicity starting now, all Bethel natives and former residents, and anyone interested in the Bethel area, will set aside this week end to revisit Bethel. Letters are being sent by the membership committee to a long list of people known to have resided here, and it is hoped that everyone in this area will tell all their relatives and friends.

Details of the program will be announced later, but it does include plenty of opportunity for everyone to visit with each other, and enjoy Bethel landmarks. There will be an antique exhibit, church services, and many special features.

The committee will welcome offers of help.

Co Chairman of the committee is Edward Quinn, and others are: Rosalind Chapman, Edward Ferron, Ronnie Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Holt, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Grover, Mrs. Edward Quinn, and John Winslow.

The next committee meeting will be held in August, with progress reports to be made to the committee chairmen in the meantime.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Van Zint were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Charlton and Mr. and Mrs. Roberto York, East Kingston, N. H.

JONES - BELL

A pretty summer wedding was held at 2:00 p. m. on July 3 at the First Congregational Church in Andover when Miss Susan C. Bell, of Lynn, Mass., daughter of Mrs. Cecelia Bell, Lynn, Mass., and Albert Bell, East Andover, became the bride of Roger L. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Jones, East Andover.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger L. Jones

The single ring ceremony was performed by Jay Cummings, pastor of the First Congregational Church. Ross B. Swain was guest organist.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a white lace gown with long sleeves, high neckline and a long chapel length train. Her shoulder length veil fell from a seeded tiara. She carried a colonial bouquet of red rose buds and mums.

The matron of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Elizabeth B. Bell, Lynn, Mass. She wore a lavender chiffon floor length gown with matching veil that fell from a lavender bow. The bridesmaids were Miss Laura Jones, sister of the groom, and Miss Diana O'Brien, friend of the bride, Lynn, Mass. Miss Jones wore a floor length green gown and Miss O'Brien wore a pink lace gown. Each wore veils attached to matching bows. All attendants carried a single rose.

The flower girl, Miss Heidi Porter, niece of the bride, wore a floor length wine colored dress with white trimmings.

Kenneth Jodrey, Andover, served as best man. Ushers were Kerry McKner and Charles Marston, Jr., both of Andover.

Following the service a reception for 100 was held at the Town Hall. The refreshment table's centerpiece was a four tier bride's cake made by Mrs. Bruce Ramey, Rumford Center, friend of the groom.

The decorations were white and silver bells and love birds. Mrs. Ramey served the cake. Mrs. Linwood Tucker and Mrs. Robert Hall dipped punch.

Gift hostesses were Joyce Porter, Andover, and Mrs. Everett Dresser, Andover. Mrs. Robert B. Swain, East Andover, circulated the guest book.

The bride's mother wore a blue street length dress and the groom's mother wore a blue and brown print. Mrs. Louis Cayer, Sr., Wallingford, Conn., grandmother of the groom and Mrs. Elizabeth Hyland, Haverhill, Mass., grandmother of the bride were also present. Each wore a corsage of carnations.

CLEAN SOUTH ARM ROAD -

An enthusiastic group of young people, the H. U. T. Staff of St. Barnabas Church, Rumford, devoted a Saturday recently to cleaning the South Arm Road. A fantastic collection of old bottles, cans, wornout tires, and miscellaneous junk was gathered from the grassy sides of the road. Shown above are members of the H. U. T. staff: Diane Cornish, Cindy Perry, Cap Bulger, Nathan Weston, Marcia Sirois, Lucien Cayer, Phil Poirier, Debby Breton, and Marian Gallant.

The group was divided into two teams with one team starting at the Andover North Surplus line working toward South Arm and the second group leaving from the campground and working towards the first team. Close to a ton of debris dumped by uncaring motorists was gathered into rubbish bags and loaded onto the camp truck.

DAILY VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL AT METHODIST CHURCH BEING PLANNED

Plans are well under way Daily Vacation Bible School at Bethel United Methodist Church. The school will be held Monday through Friday, July 26-30, from 9 to 11 a. m.

The only expense to students will be a registration fee of fifty cents which will be used to help defray the expense of the craft material and refreshments.

If any one would like to help who has not indicated this as yet, more helpers can still be used. Any volunteers are asked to contact Mrs. Frederick Bailey or Mrs. Sarah Stevens.

It would help in planning for sufficient teachers and helpers if children or parents of children who think they will be possibly attending would contact one of the following: Pre-School and Kindergarten Children: Mrs. Mary Angevine (pre-school, 3 years old and up); Grades 1, 2, 3: Mrs. Rodney Hanson; Grade 4, 5, 6: Mrs. Richard Stevens, or Mrs. Frederick Bailey.

GREENWOOD CITY

Mrs. Callie Morgan, Corres.
As the gray pearly dawn came, the day was tipped with golden light. Soft misty shadows above the pond made a background for the many daisies nodding slightly.

Hushed silence reigned over all the countryside.

The sun, a shimmering explorer, danced across the blue to rest on Edgcomb mountain.

One lonely duck was eating its breakfast among the reeds.

Thus started another day, a country day either of monotony or magic, depending on the person; a panorama ever changing with smell, sound, sight and emotion.

With my washing on the line, a trip to the farm for vegetables, and the mowing of the lawns, the morning vanished.

Then my heart went a-gyping to the freckled fields where the bobolinks would sing and catch the sunbeams from the sky.

So I set out to find the wild strawberries ripening in the grass along the slopes and fields high above the valley. This task to some is arduous for the berries are small; but who could mind in a world so lovely!

A soft breeze brought the sun-dappled hay smell and all the fields sparkled in rainbow colors; and sweetness just dropped here in summer's cup.

I could hear whispering in the

MAGALLOWAY

Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard Behrend with Heidi and Eric of Watertown, Mass., were at their camp in Walden's Mills, Sunday night and Monday.

People here are very sorry to hear of the death of Kenneth Lambert of Berlin as he with his family, were residents of Magalloway for several years. They have a camp near the Magalloway church.

My grandson, Frederick Abbott, of Groveton, with his wife, Linda, their daughter, Loretta, and a visiting niece, Laurie Ann Campbell, spent Sunday with me. He mowed the lawns and did other work around here. They expect to go to Waterville, Fairfield, and Vassalboro this week end.

A large doe was hit and killed Saturday night at 12:30 o'clock in the road in front of my house. Sunday morning a search was made for motherless fawns but none were found.

Bruce McGinley and family of Manchester, N. H., are at their summer home here, also his parents, Harold and Nina.

Mark and Alice Harvey and their four-year-old granddaughter, Michelle, were at their camp on Umbagog Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Stuart of Gorham, Maine, visited Mrs. Helen Hart Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bennett and family of Rumford are at the Azis-coc House for a two weeks vacation.

treetops and if I forced my ears to listen I could hear the scratch and rattle of the grasshopper or the rustle of a beetle in flight.

To mar the pleasure there were the "clip-wings" buzzing and biting and a million other little hummings, buzzings, and rustlings.

I suppose it's a chorus that goes with daisy time in the meadows and wild rose time along the walls.

Of course, the bumble, the bumblebee, was about and although he is armed like the hornet he seldom looks for trouble. He seems to eat when hungry, bumble when he wishes and rest when tired, couching nights in a zinnia or some other flower.

James Whitcomb Riley said, "We are knee-deep in June." How true for the fields below showed richness, ripeness, and the farmer at work.

It was hay time and nothing quite matches the smell of new mown grass drying in the sun. It floated up to me and mingled with the strawberry smell and the aromatic scent of pine and spruce; impregnated air warm and dry releasing its scents.

The sound of the baler floated upward while a charm of gold finches, like big yellow butterflies, hovered and twittered overhead.

Occasionally the sun was hidden behind the clouds so the light had a silvery softness.

The cows grazed peacefully next to the pond.

It took some time to pick a quart of berries with so many other things of interest. Then I returned to where the swallows rose, flinging themselves against the sky then diving to hit the water, their chatter happy and friendly.

Taking in clothes and putting them away, preparing the strawberries for supper brought the working part of the day nearly to a close.

That evening on the lawn was replaced by the gentleness of night. Mystical shadows along the shorelines and across the lawns while homing birds were in silent flight.

Everything was teeming with life; millions of flying things, crawling things, scurrying things, and yet there was a silence I don't know why. The noises just got lost.

In the west was a display of color that delighted the eye.

The fireflies brought their lamps. Stars appeared.

We disappeared.

Sweet peace of evening, contentment won.

By honest toil and work well done.

This is the beauty of the country side" (Mamie O. Adams)

II Floasit

Nearly 400 one gallon hard plastic jugs once containing milk are now buoying a fine float at the Milton Toman camp. These were saved by friends, neighbors, and dump catchers during the winter, then carefully capped, packed and fitted to gether this spring. Finally the day came to push the wharf into the water accompanied by crew, "It floats!" It surely does, solid, firm, and safe!

So ecology classes with the old slogan, "Use it up, wear it out, make it do, or do without" fits here.

A good way to keep the air from pollution; avoid burning those jugs, save them to build a wharf. It is really worth a try!

Elsie Inman was a patient at Stephens Memorial Hospital a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Chase, West Paris, was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leona Holt.

Mrs. Clyde Morgan spent Friday with her cousin, Mrs. Carl Brooks, West Paris.

Minnie Buck, Rena Bacon, West Paris, and Annie Mills, Shapleigh, were callers at Mrs. Clyde Morgan's this week.

Callers at the Millets this week were: Barbara Immonen, Mrs. Sandra Coffin and son, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis.
